THAT

You are looking at these lines and I'm already happy! I was writing them for you in the highest moments of blessing contact with myself, THAT what I am. These moments weren't long and I didn't make an effort to distribute them all along my life.

At first, I had no time, daily vanity distracted. Then it was too late, the resources of my body almost ran out. I'd spent them on rush, chasing the pleasure, rivalry, worries, suffering, treatment and the search for the truth...

But THE MOST IMPORTANT is that I've understood, recalled, realized and felt... And I want to hand it over to you. To you while you still have strength, time and all your life ahead! So you'll have done everything I haven't manage to. So use the opportunity which I missed. So now you, reading these lines, may discover THAT what I've been discovering hundred lives in a row!

I want you to know it already now. I'll leave these line for you, for me in the next life, that'll be for sure as I haven't had enough time to do so much!

Well, read, feel, recall...

THAT what has led you to these lines

You're holding IT into your arms, your mind through your eyes is reading these lines. Start listening to yourself, what are you feeling, what are your heart, your brain, your body feeling. What are you holding in your hands right now, who are there lines from, who wrote them, who's led you to them? Who's been leading you through lives during the centuries? Who's now reading these lines, who can see through the retina of your eyes...? Who feels your heart trembling, who drops a tear...

Who feels the touch to the most thrilling, kindest and tenderest moment in your life... Who arises a soft wave of the deepest feelings in your heart... Who gives you the opportunity to feel that great graceful moment of touching what was lying so deep in your heart and what has become so close now..! What were you hiding away all your life from yourself and what you've been looking for all over the world...

You're feeling this thrill because now you're holding in your hands the key from that sacramental door in your life.

You are holding the key to yourself, to that person who you were looking for so long, praying, begging, swearing, taking offenses, believed, hoped, loved and hated, remembered and forgot...

You are THAT and these lines are about IT

These lines are about you who came to the Earth and got confused with dogmas, anthems and words, the truth and lie, good and evil... About you, who have just forgotten that you are THAT! But wherever you go, no matter how wrong you are, you're THAT! Here and now you're holding in your hands these pages and you're reading these words written by you...for yourself! If you get confused, you'll remember, if you forget, you'll clear, if you're plunged into darkness, you'll lighten up! These lines are a tangle, which you've unraveled so later you can come back home even if get lost. Keeping them in your heart you'll always feel this connection, this unity of you with your home and never ever lose yourself as you have nothing to lose!

You were writing these lines for yourself and all those who got lost in this world of colossal pleasures and wishes. For those, who want to recall themselves, who are already ready to find in themselves Joy, Happiness, Love and Goodness. Yes, these are wonderful words, but you are the most wonderful because you are all THESE! You are THAT! Feel, live, love, donate, create, rejoice and wake up all those who are sleeping, who came to this World of Joy but have been suffering for billions of years, chasing momentary pleasure and fulfillment of countless wishes. After all, you are THAT! That what you've been looking for all your life, you've been striving to with all your might.

You are JOY!
You are HAPPINESS!
You are LOVE!
You are THAT!

And if it is difficult for you to recall it, just feel these words, because you've written them to yourself with great love and care to yourself...Recall your handwriting, style, feelings, your Light and your Joy, your Happiness, your Love, recall yourself. Recall THAT who you are! THAT what you are!

You exist and if you didn't exist, you wouldn't read these lines written for yourself. You wouldn't love and take care of yourself, leaving and delivering this message for you... You'll definitely recall and definitely discover THAT what you EXIST! And then, you'll smile or maybe sob violently as soon as you read to this place... Have recognized and felt your words and those tears of Joy, Happiness and Love, which soaked these lines! And then you'll exclaim- God, I've been looking for You so long and so far, although You've always been so close! I forgot that You are inside me, You are in every heart. All we living on the Earth are THAT and forever and ever will be JOY, HAPPINESS, TRUTH and LOVE!

Stay with it as long and often as you can. And soon you'll surely recall that JOY that you EXIST!

Remember about those who are still sleeping and let your Light illuminate their hearts with this gentle shine of Joy, Tenderness, Affinity and Kinship!

And all words will lose the sense...

And you'll find yourself again in this wonderful body, the triumph of your perfection!

THAT! THAT! THAT what is needed! THAT EXISTS!

When you are reading these pages, I feel it. It is such Happiness to give them as a gift to you! I'll fill you with the best I have inside me! I can't hide it as well as you can't hide anything from you. It's written for you. It's saved for you. And if you're holding it in your hands, it means that you're ready to accept THAT, learn THAT, recall THAT what you are! THAT what all the universe is soaked with, THAT what all Love, all Joy, all Grace are saturated! THAT what always exists, always has been existing, you just forgot about THAT for a moment...

And that is why, now I am in these words, which your eyes are reading, in your hands, which are holding these pages, in your mind, which is listening to Me, and with tears... or maybe already with the joy, is becoming aware of Me inside you. You're discovering My voice coming out from the depth of your Heart! To you my inner Light addresses. Whatever you do, whatever you think of, I'm shining inside you and that Light is eternal! This bulb has no switcher even if Your mind doesn't understand it. I'm real You, but not that one you take me for. Your mind and

Your body are just Your perfect assistants. They assist those Light, Joy, Happiness, Love, which came to the Earth to have the opportunity to show themselves in all their glory and perfection! Your body and mind are just assistants to the Light which You Are! They just help You to shine, donate, manifest Yourself in this wonderful world!

You already feel You. Body and mind help You to feel You, that Joy, Happiness, Goodness and Love which you are! Hear yourself and feel and

BE! BE YOURSELF!

THAT WHO DWELLS

IN HEARTS OF ALL CREATURES!

I wish the only one thing - you absorb these lines, these feelings, as well as I was writing them once for myself. Thank You, Love You! You know that! From now you know everything. After all there's nobody in the world who might hide whatever from You as there's nobody but You. In the world there's nobody what You are not. You're everything, I'm You. My lines are words of Your heart, My thrill is the thrill of Your soul, My joy is Your ringing laughter, My Love is Your sacramental Essence, THAT what You are made of, THAT what you are, THAT what HAS always BEEN, what always WILL BE and it's the Truth!

I'm crying when I'm writing these lines and the tears are falling on these pages. The Tears of Joy discovering it and presenting it to You! Live in Joy, be it! And let the tears flow down your cheeks just because of the Joy, The Joy of meeting Yourself!

And one more thing. Always remember that people living next to you are waiting for these lines, these feelings, this Light. All they really need these Joy and Light, Happiness and Love, which are hidden inside you, in them, their bodies, minds, dogmas. Help them to discover Themselves, do yourself a favor since all that is You! That what EXIST!

Do not thank, BE!

OM!!!

THAT what can't be stopped

I can't stop this stream of Love flowing out of my heart! Never ever I've been so happy as now when I've completed writing these lines. The lines are for myself, for that person who I'll be, who I Am! I thought that's all. No, it's not all. This is only the beginning, the beginning of my awakening, my revival in this wonderful world. And I can't keep silence, I can't sleep anymore or having a lie-in because I've woken up, I've heard!!!

It's a miracle to hear the voice of your heart, the voice of you Soul, the voice of the God which you've been waiting for all your life and hoped to hear from somewhere in the sky. It's coming from your heart, from That what you are, from that what you Exist! It's been always inside me, I just didn't listen to it. This voice is so dear, so it's impossible to understand how I used to live without it and whether I actually lived...

To find it, to discover that Happiness inside you! The Happiness is to feel it inside your heart with all your being! It is so close! I'm so saturated with It! It is my essence, my base, my energy, my endless axis around which all my thoughts, feelings, wishes, objects, bodies and minds are revolving.

I've been chasing it all over the world, looking for it in churches, ancient books, holly places, in the heavens and only recently started to look for it inside, inside myself, listening to some kind of unusual thrill arising sometimes in my heart. My observations have shown me that some kind of causeless Joy, Happiness and Love exist inside me, which are very difficult to explain with your mind. Step by step I stopped thinking about it, stopped trying to explain it. I just let this Joy, this Happiness, this Love to Be! To be next to me, to be inside me, at first for a moment, then minutes, hours. It was so great! And gradually, I understood that it's me, not my mind or body. I'm That what appears thank to them in this wonderful world, this is that Joy, which splashes over the edge, that Love, which has no boundaries, that Happiness which exists! This Joy, which can't be described with the words, just Is and you Are this Joy!

No! After that I can't die! This letter I'll necessarily leave to you, but know that I won't die anymore! I'm tried of dying in each of you. From now I'll live forever!

My body is regaining strength coming out of nowhere, my mind, having heard me, is ready to serve me and it makes it happy. Finally, it's found that infinite source of Wisdom which consists of the Truth and it's no longer necessary to look for it somewhere out there always doubting is it so or not, is it that or not. Here, inside, is always That, always the Truth, which Exists!
